IN A DISCUSSION ABOUT...

MORAL INJURY

A SOUL WOUND LAID OPEN BY BEING IN WAR

THURSDAY • MAY 4 • 7:00 PM

- ★ What is Moral Injury?
- ★ How does Moral Injury differ from PTSD?
- ★ How can we begin to heal?

Dr. Glen Miller is currently an adjunct professor at Temple University in the Fox School of Business. He is a co-founder of the Veteran's Community Network. In 2003 he began to move toward a need within himself to help veterans returning from our more recent wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. Initially he did coaching and mentoring assisting them in finding employment and assessing mental health services. Glen is a Vietnam combat veteran (Army Ranger) who continues to advocate for awareness and education to the community on PTSD and support for veterans struggling to adjust to civilian life.

Scott Hutchinson is a United Church of Christ Pastor who has served at St. Andrew's UCC in Perkasie for the last 21 years. A significant part of his ministry is dedicated to tending the soul wounds of war. He is a co-founder of Touchstone Veterans Outreach and the COMPASS Healing Circle. Scott's war experiences have been as a mission partner and a witness for peace in Central America.
